

BRIDE DIES AT SIDE OF MAN IN HOSPITAL

Handicap Last Greeting as Secret Wife of Wounded Newark Policemen Passes Away.

Mrs. Anna Fletcher, twenty-five, died in the Newark City Hospital of peritonitis, at the bedside of her husband, Patrolman Robert Fletcher, of the Second Precinct.

Fletcher has been in the hospital for seven weeks, with a bullet wound in his leg. He was married to Mrs. Fletcher last June, but his marriage was kept secret by the young couple until the policeman was injured while chasing a negro. Four days ago Mrs. Fletcher became ill, and was unconscious all day yesterday. When it became evident that she would die to-day four attendants carried the young woman on her cot into her husband's room. She could not move, but Fletcher reached over and put his hand on his wife's. Both said goodby.

It is that of the wife and four children of a convict who will leave Sing Sing next month. The wife is ill and destitute and the family is threatened with being ousted for non-payment of rent.

The commission, of which John B. Kennedy is President, believes that $150 to $200 will tide the family over until the convict's return from Sing Sing. Contributions should be addressed to Mr. Kennedy at No. 15 Day Street.
